The Almighty GOD!

Who are you before the Almighty God?

El-Shaddai (God Almighty)

FRONTLINE...

God the Father is known by many names, one of which is El-Shaddai, meaning "God Almighty." He revealed Himself to our forefathers as the Almighty God (Exodus 5:22). In this passage, we see God encouraging Moses by giving him a promise and assuring him of His presence, saying, "I am the Lord." Throughout history, in our daily lives, and in our mission fields, we witness the mighty acts of this Almighty God. El-Shaddai is omnipotent, meaning He is the All-Sufficient One, the God who is more than enough. Job confesses that the Almighty is beyond our reach and exalted in power (Job 37:23). (A) The Almighty implies that God has all the power to do anything He wills, and He cannot be stopped from accomplishing His purposes (Daniel 4:35). (B) He does whatever pleases Him (Psalm 115:3, Isaiah 46:9-10): "I am God... I will accomplish all My purpose." (C) His power is superior to all other powers. God shows a small display of His strength and splendor every morning when He brings the sun over the horizon-865,000 miles thick, 1.3 million times heavier than the Earth, and blazing at 1 million degree Celsius. And each night, God gives us a glimpse of His majesty in the sky, reminding us that He is infinite in power, and nothing compares to His might (Psalm 19).

What does the name God Almighty mean to us? It means reverence-a combination of admiration, fear, awe, wonder, and terror (Isaiah 8:13). It also implies the recompense of wrath upon those who do not believe the Gospel (2 Thessalonians 1:8, Psalm 73), and refuge, which is the opposite of recompense (Psalm 91:1-2): "...will rest in the shadow of the Almighty."

One night, our local evangelist went to a village called Jordiga in the Sahibganj district of Jharkhand to conduct a meeting. The singing of hymns and evangelism went on until midnight, finishing around 12 o'clock. Early the next morning, the villagers approached the evangelist and said, "Last night, while you were singing, our deity left the village. Now you must bear the cost of bringing our deity back. Until then, you are not allowed to leave." In response, our local evangelist boldly replied, "If your god has fled listening to Jesus songs, I now realize how powerful our God, Jesus, truly is." The villagers, who had initially demanded money and issued threats, quietly left without saying another word.

We see this same truth in the life of Zerubbabel. He could do nothing on his own about the challenges like a mountain ahead of him, but the Lord Almighty, who was with him, made the impossible possible. The same God who began a good work in and through Zerubbabel and helped him complete it is the same God who will help us through the thick and thin of our lives, in our families, and in our ministries. El-Shaddai-He is more than enough for us!

From the General Secretary...

Dear Partners in the mission of reaching the unreached,

In Headquarters we have group discussion twice in a week in the morning devotion. I get the opportunity to join any one of the groups whenever I am in Chennai. On 10th of September we had a discussion on the passage from Acts 4: 23 - 37. One of the points deeply discussed was how the believers in the early church brought their belongings to the Apostles and how it was redistributed to the needy as per their requirement. This was done in such a way that the people did not lack anything. Acts 4:34 & 35 says 'that there were no needy persons among them. For from time to time those who owned land or houses sold them, brought the money from the sales, and put it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to anyone who had need'.

The question was, is it possible in today's context? All of a sudden I had a thought that FMPB functions almost the same way. We bring all the offerings and use it for the missionaries and ministry. The distribution is based on the needs of the missionaries and those who needs. We praise God for shaping FMPB in this way and thank God for all forefathers who guided FMPB in principles adhering to the Word of God.

Pukhrayan church issue: We started constructing some facilities in the church in Pukhrayan, Uttar Pradesh and the same has been opposed by some people and stopped it. Efforts are being taken for various possibilities to solve the problem and do the necessary construction. The cross and the gate along with portion of compound wall was broken in a neighbouring church. Your prayers are solicited for God's intervention.

Gujarat ordination service: By the grace of God and strong support of CNI Gujarat Diocese Bishop Rt. Rev. Silvans Christian, 28 missionaries and evangelists were ordained as Deacons on 2nd September at the church in Surat, Gujarat. FMPB expresses its gratitude to the Bishop and Office Bearers of the Gujarat Diocese for this excellent help.

Chhattisgarh visit: From 4th September to 8th September I visited the missionaries of Chhattisgarh Region along with the Field Secretary and Regional Secretary. The time spent with each missionary family was enriching and blessed.

Guwahati program: On 14th a meeting of government officials, professionals and church leaders was held at Guwahati. A large number of people attended the meeting including high ranking officials. The program gave me a good opportunity to introduce FMPB in a deeper lever.

On 15th we spoke in three of the Boro Baptist Church Association's churches in and around Tukrajhar which is a 5 hours drive from Guwahati. Later on 15th a MOU was signed between FMPB and Boro Baptist Church Association for a closer cooperation and participation for the spread of gospel in Assam and to get more missionaries.

Your fellow servant in God's mission

Rev. John Berlin S.

Who are you mighty Mountain?

This year, the theme God has given to our organization is "Who am I?" We have been meditating on this theme each month, and this month we are focusing on the topic from Zechariah 4:7: "What are you, mighty mountain? Before Zerubbabel you will become level ground. Then he will bring out the capstone to shouts of 'God bless it! God bless it!'. What is the "mighty mountain" mentioned in this verse? Let us reflect on the life of Zerubbabel to understand what was so significant about him that this mountain would become level ground before him. As we strive to fulfill God's plan in our lives, we often encounter great obstacles. This passage teaches us that the Almighty God we worship is with us in the midst of these obstacles. He strengthens us through His Word and accomplishes His plan in and through us.

Who Was Zerubbabel

Zerubbabel's means "born in Babylon" or "seed of Babylon" in Greek, and "sowed in Babylon" in Hebrew. Just as Zerubbabel was sent from Jerusalem to Babylon to get equipped to fulfill God's plan, we too are placed in India to carry out His mission. What is God's purpose for us, being "sown" throughout the land of India? We can learn from Zerubbabel's life that it is our Almighty God who gives us plans and brings them to completion. To Him be all praise, honor, and glory.

The Giver of Plans

God's plan for Zerubbabel was to build a temple for the Almighty. God led him directly to this task. In the Bible, we see three united kingdoms in the Old Testament: the kingdom of Saul, the kingdom of David, and the kingdom of Solomon. After Solomon's reign, the twelve tribes of Israel were divided into two kingdoms during the reign of Rehoboam. The ten northern tribes formed the Kingdom of Israel, and the two southern tribes—Judah and Benjamin—formed the Kingdom of Judah. Both kingdoms eventually went into exile because their kings acted against God's will. Zerubbabel's parents were among those taken captive from the Kingdom of Judah to Babylon. Zerubbabel was born in Babylon, raised in godliness, and served as an official in the palace. God chose him to return to Jerusalem and rebuild His temple. In our lives, when we face various situations, we must believe that God has a divine plan for each circumstance and act accordingly.

The Giver of Purpose

Just as God had a great purpose for Zerubbabel, He has a purpose for each of us. In Haggai 2:23, God says, "I have chosen you and set you as a signet ring." In Ezra 2:1-2, we learn that during Nebuchadnezzar's reign, God's purpose for Zerubbabel was not only to lead the people back from 70 years of captivity in Babylon but also to build a temple for God. God prepared Zerubbabel for this task by placing him in a position of responsibility in the palace, where he gained knowledge of construction work. Even though he was in a foreign land, Zerubbabel was planning to give God his very best. Like Zerubbabel, we too must surrender ourselves to God's plan and purpose, no matter what situation we are in. When we do this, God will accomplish His work through us.

A God Who Acts

The same God who gives us plans and purposes also works alongside us to fulfill them. Seventy years after the Babylonian exile, God stirred the spirit of King Cyrus of Persia to fulfill what He had promised through the prophet (Ezra 1:1). In Ezra 1:3-5, we see that Cyrus commanded the Israelites to return and build the temple of God, even instructing those who remained behind to support the effort with enthusiasm. This is similar to the watchword of the Friends Missionary Prayer Band, "Go or Send." We are called either to go out and do God's work or to support those who go through our prayers and offerings. There is no room for boasting in God's work, for the One who gives the plan and purpose is the same One who executes it.

Building the Temple with Zerubbabel

Zerubbabel was highly educated in Babylon, skilled in architecture, and had a high position in the palace. Yet, he felt a deep burden for his people and for the temple of God, which lay in ruins. Even when he was offered a prestigious role in the palace, Zerubbabel chose to be the governor of Judah so that he could fulfill God's plan by rebuilding the temple. Today there is an urgent need for people like Zerubbabel-people willing to leave their comfortable lives to fulfill God's purpose. Parents should also encourage their children to go to every corner of India to build the Kingdom of God. Zerubbabel used his influence to obtain everything needed for the construction work. His devotion and commitment serve as an example to us all.

Abiding in the Word of God

The most important reason Zerubbabel left the comforts of the palace was his deep abiding in the Word of God. Even while in the palace, the burden of the Lord was upon him. When God chose him to rebuild the temple, he was already knowledgeable about the details of the previous temple's construction, which Solomon had built. His parents had likely raised him well in accordance with Deuteronomy 6:4-7, teaching him the importance of God's Word. We, too, must dedicate ourselves to raise our children in God's ways. In Haggai 1:12, Zerubbabel and those with him obeyed the Word of God and the prophets. God works best through those who listen to His voice and do His will. Zerubbabel did not rely on his own experience or the skills he had gained in Babylon. Instead, he trusted fully in God. He refused to compromise or allow his enemies to help in building the temple, knowing that the work was to be done by God's chosen people alone (Zechariah 4:1-3).

Even when the work of rebuilding was halted for two years by his enemies, Zerubbabel remained steadfast. As we read in Zechariah 4:7, "What are you, mighty mountain? Before Zerubbabel, you will become level ground." God will help us overcome obstacles when we live according to His plan.

Bringing the Work to Completion

Zerubbabel was dedicated to complete the task God had given him. Zechariah 4:7 says that Zerubbabel will bring out the capstone-the final piece, signifying the completion of the temple. Zechariah 4:9 tells us that the same hands that laid the foundation of the temple will finish it. Because Zerubbabel faithfully carried out God's work, his name appears in the genealogy of Christ in Matthew 1:13.

Though the temple built by Zerubbabel was later destroyed, the people of Israel continue to fight to rebuild it. In 1 Corinthians 3:16, we are reminded that our bodies are now the temple where God dwells. As Christians, we are all missionaries, called to bring souls to Christ and make them living temples of God. Let us be like Zerubbabel, dedicating ourselves to God's work. May the Lord who helped Zerubbabel also help us. Amen.

PATLI DABAR

CHURCH HISTORY

Written By:

MRS. D. AGNES EDWARD

General Information

Patli Dabar village is located in the Sirsa district of Haryana state, under the Hissar Division. According to the 2011 census, the village consists of 840 families with a literacy rate of 73.7%. The village is administered by a Sarpanch, an elected representative of the village.

Beginning of Missionary Work

Sirsa is the first mission field of the Friends Missionary Prayer Band in Haryana, established in 1974 by missionaries Mr. James Kaiser and Mr. V. Anthony. In April 1977, Mr. S. Rajendran arrived in Sirsa after Mr. D. Anthony left. Mr. Kaiser and Mr. Rajendran, got the contact of a Christian Punjabi nurse named Prakash Chandhu, working at Civil Hospital in Fatehabad. This is how the ministry began in Fatehabad in 1979. By 1983, Mr. Joy Kutty and his wife Mrs. Roshamma were appointed as pioneer missionaries, marking the opening of the Fatehabad mission field.

Key Events in the Growth of the Mission

In September 1997, missionaries Mr. John Balasingh and Mr. Solomon Shanmugam from the Fatehabad field came into contact with Mr. Surjith's family in Patli Dabar village. Through a believer of the Dhariapur Church, our missionaries prayed for Mr. Surjith's 8-year-old daughter, who was possessed by a demonic spirit. After witnessing her deliverance, Mr. Surjith and his family believed in Jesus and removed all idols from their home. The whole family got the baptism. This led to the transformation of Mr. Atma Ram's family, who accepted Christ and were baptized on October 19, 1997.

Missionary Mrs. Sheela Shanmugam, along with local evangelist Mrs. Kamlesh, evangelized Mrs. Kutty, a resident of Baguwali. They also began conducting prayer meetings there. In Baguwali, Mr. Solomon Shanmugam shared the Gospel in many villages through film ministry, and God performed miracles, expanding the mission's reach.

Testimony of Mr. Devilal

"I, Devilal from Patli Dabar, once worshipped idols. My family experienced poverty, disease, and agricultural failures. During this time, Mrs. Seela Shanmugam and Mrs. Kamlesh came to preach the Gospel in our area. My family turned to Christ, and through the prayers of the missionaries, God blessed my son, who had been tormented by sleeplessness due to spiritual oppression. I also came to faith and was baptized with my family on March 13, 2000. Since then, over 25 families from our village have believed in Christ as we continued to evangelize. Eventually, Church worship began in our village."

Establishment of Worship Services

Initially, after the first baptisms in Patli Dabar, believers attended worship at the Dhariyapur Church. However, in 1998, Sunday worship was started in the home of Mr. Najarin, a local believer. By December 2012, a land with a room was purchased for the construction of the church and was used for worship services. Worship continued there until the completion of the Church in 2016.

Testimonies of Healing and Faith

Mrs. Raj: "My husband suffered from tuberculosis, and I had cancer. My Christian sister-in-law took me to church services, where we were baptized. Through prayer, God healed us completely, and we began to evangelize our relatives, who are now also believers."

Mr. Bhoopsingh: "My family in Kanwarapura village suffered from spiritual oppression and illness for 24 years, spending all our earnings on witch doctors with no relief. When my cousin, Mr. Devilal, shared the Gospel and prayed for us, God brought complete deliverance. We believed in Christ and were baptized on December 20, 2016. Through prayer, God has performed many miracles, leading others to faith in Jesus."

Land for Church Construction

The land for the Church was purchased for Rs. 6,30,000/- on December 8, 2011. The plot measures 4083.75 sq. ft. At that time, Mr. Aliakim Jena was the missionary overseeing the work, and Mr. Raja Edwin Moses was the Regional Secretary for Haryana.

Church Members

Patli Dabar Church members come from the villages of Bahuwali and Kusumbi. They belong to the Balmiki, Jaat, Majbi, and Odd Rajput communities.

Resistance and Church Destruction

The construction of the Patli Dabar Church began on July 11, 2012. However, local villagers strongly opposed it, and around 150 people came, destroying pillars, damaging the structure, and stealing construction materials. False accusations of forced conversions were made against the Christians. By God's grace, the District Collector of Sirsa from Tamil Nadu, intervened, and an FIR was filed. Despite the opposition, the believers, through fervent prayer, stood strong, and eventually, only the village head, Mr. Hanuman Singh, remained an opponent. After two years, peace was restored.

Completion of the Church

The Church, named Prabhu Esu Masih Satsang Bhawan, was completed in November 2016. Former village head Mr. Hanuman Singh later apologized for his opposition. The Church was dedicated on November 27, 2016, for the glory of God in the presence of missionary Mr. Vijayakumar and Prayer Group Leaders Mr. Immanuel and Mr. Stephen from Saidapet, Chennai.

Church Activities

The Church has an Executive Committee of 8 members. The Lord's Supper is celebrated on the second Sunday of each month, and special prayer meetings are being held every Wednesday. Church Elder Mr. Dev and the Committee Members are involved in the evangelism in surrounding villages, leading to the establishment of two worship groups in Kusumbi and Kanwarpur. Let's pray that the believers in this Church to become indigenous and to thrive into a strong congregation.

Missionary Biography

Bro. George Isaac, born on the 21st of March 1951 in a Hindu family, hails from Bonami Tea estate of Idukki district, Kerala. He was the eldest son to his parents Mr. Iyakuttu and Mrs. Meenatchi. His father had worked in the tea-estate of Idukki district, Kerala. His mother was a homemaker. An evil spirit haunted Mrs. Meenatchi and it brought a lot of suffering to this family. They took every effort to get rid of this evil spirit that possessed her. But nothing happened. At this juncture, the family heard about Jesus Christ and the deliverance offered by Him. The family trusted Lord Jesus Christ and prayed fervently for her deliverance. Their prayers were answered and Mrs. Meenatchi returned to normal life. This deliverance from evil spirits reinforced their faith in Jesus Christ. Meanwhile, their eldest son, George Isaac, completed his school studies in Kerala.

Experience of Salvation

The entire family embraced Christianity when they witnessed the miracle experienced by Isaac's mother. The family started attending the local Church regularly. Once Isaac attended a spiritual meeting held in the Church. God spoke to him through 2 Corinthians 5:17; and he confessed his sins and accepted Jesus Christ as his personal saviour. According to the Bible verse found in Revelation 3:20, he became a new person in Christ.

Call to Ministry

Mr George got spiritual strength through reading and meditating upon the Bible systematically. During one of the spiritual meetings conducted in the Church, he committed himself to the ministry. The speaker at that meeting called Isaac by name and declared that God had chosen him to do ministry. George's calling was confirmed through his regular reading of the Bible. Initially, George had an opportunity to join the Campus Crusade for Christ. This mission trained him so well that he started his ministry in his area. After some time, George came to know about the Friends Missionary Prayer Band and their ministry among the unreached people of North India. God inspired him to go as a missionary and he joined FMPB after facing the formal selection process. FMPB sent him for one year missionary training to Bethel Bible Institute at Danishpet. On completion of training, he was sent to the North India mission field.

Marital Life

George Isaac got married to Sis. Jayamary from Vellaikoil in Erode district on 14.09.1981. God blessed their married life with four children. The eldest son Jamin Christopher Raja is settled in the USA after marriage and works as an engineering technology graduate. Jelin Christina is married and lives in Chennai. Jason Paul works in Chennai and Justin Roshan is married and has settled in Chennai.

Church Planting Ministry

From 1979 onwards, George actively undertook Church planting ministry through FMPB. He ministered in the fields such as Siwan, Basti and Seethamari in Uttar Pradesh. In 1980, he was in the mission fields of Gonda and Kalpi. In 1981, he shifted his base to Dattia and Don of Madhya Pradesh which has the Christian

Population of 0.29% and the Christians live mostly in urban areas. Many districts do not have even a single Church. From 1985 onwards, he undertook ministry of Bhandar field and a Church was built. In 1996, he took charge of Children's Home in Siwait and worked with the Missionary Training Center for men.

Mobilization Ministry

From 1998, Isaac took over the responsibility of leading the mobilization ministry based at Allahabad. He did ministry among the Churches and exhorted the congregation members to get involved in ministry and to form prayer groups. He toiled hard to add new members to FMPB.

Last Days

George Isaac was suffering from diabetes. In the month of December 2001, he actively took part in Christmas celebrations like carols and collecting gifts for missionaries. On the last day of December, he suffered a lot and was admitted to a hospital. Since he had been suffering from diabetes and hypertension, he had a massive heart-attack and died on the same day, i.e. 31.12.2001. Let us praise God for Rev. George Isaac's 23 years of dedicated ministry. Let us also uphold his beloved family in our prayers.

TRAIL BLAZERS

Alexander Murdoch Mackay was born in Rhiney, Scotland, on October 13, 1849. From a young age, he dedicated his heart to Christ, eager to live honestly and serve Him. He was deeply influenced by his father's biblical teachings and his mother's missionary biographies of William Carey, Henry Martyn, and David Livingstone. With a keen interest in technology, Alexander worked alongside the workers during the construction of his father's factory. At the age of 13, he pursued a technical education in shipbuilding and later went to Germany for further studies.

After reading the life history of missionary David Livingstone, Alexander wrote in his diary: "Livingstone, a Scottish Christian who loved God and his neighbor in the land of Africa—you should go and do the same."

The Call to Africa

Mackay often questioned what an engineer like himself could contribute to undeveloped Africa. On December 12, 1875, he read a letter in the Daily Review written by Henry M. Stanley, who had gone searching for David Livingstone. The letter conveyed the King of Uganda's desire to learn about the God of the white men. Stanley wrote that the person ready to cure diseases and build houses

Alexander
Murdoch Mackay

(October 13, 1849 - February 8, 1890)

would be the one to save Africa. Mackay took this as a divine call and immediately wrote to the Church Missionary Society, expressing his willingness to go to Uganda. On April 27, 1876, Alexander Mackay set sail for Uganda with seven other young missionaries.

The Path of Ministry

Upon arriving in East Africa, Mackay got a fever and had to delay his journey. Once recovered, he continued his work, facing numerous challenges as he worked to construct a 230-mile road through dense jungle from the coast to Mbiwabwa. He saw this road as a symbolic way for Christ's message to reach the hearts of the people.

Mackay also fought to dispel the local superstitions. He preached against magic and sorcery and demonstrated his beliefs by purchasing a local charm, then burning it in front of the people. When nothing happened to him, the people began to believe in his message. Mackay even earned the respect of the king by designing a coffin for the king's deceased mother, which allowed him to share the gospel with the monarch. Mackay established a factory to teach Ugandans how to smelt iron and make various tools. His technical skills earned him the nickname "the working white man" in a culture where men typically fought and conversed with kings, while women did all the manual labor. He explained that even Jesus Christ worked as a carpenter, showing that labor is honorable.

He also worked to improve public health by digging wells to provide clean water, which reduced disease. Using a printing press he brought, he taught people to read and write, translating portions of the New Testament into local languages. Despite all of his technical and social contributions, Mackay never lost sight of his primary goal—winning souls for Christ. His prayer was, "Give me a burning zeal for souls, and let me stand here as a link between perishing souls and Christ, who alone can save them."

God answered his prayer with the baptism of Sembera, his first convert, and later three of the king's men. Although the king himself was willing to be baptized, Mackay insisted he must first give up polygamy, sorcery, the slave trade, and raiding other tribes. The king refused.

Persecution and Sacrifice

Tragically, violence continued to plague Uganda. Thousands were killed following the king's death, including 2,000 during the royal funeral alone. Mackay pleaded with the king to stop these senseless killings. The king died soon afterward, but his successor, King Mwanga, was even more brutal toward Christians. Mwanga ordered the execution of hundreds of Christians, including burning alive some who had accepted the Gospel.

Mackay's life was often in danger, but he remained steadfast in his mission. He was strengthened by visits from fellow missionary Henry Stanley, who had initially written the letter that inspired Mackay to come to Africa. Despite fatigue and illness, Mackay continued his work until he succumbed to a severe fever on February 8, 1890, at the age of 41.

Legacy

Alexander Mackay never returned to his home country during his 14 years in Africa. Though he died young, his legacy endured. In 1922, Fazil Matthew wrote: "Today, King Kavadi of Uganda is a Christian. There is a beautiful church in the capital, and there are 70,000 Ugandan Christians. The slave trade is completely abolished. The killing of people as sacrifices to idols has ended."

Although Alexander Mackay did not live to witness these changes, the price he paid was not in vain. His dedication and sacrifice paved the way for a transformed Uganda, and his story continues to inspire generations of Christians and missionaries worldwide.

Authority over serpents!

A large black cobra coiled up next to the door of Ellappa, a local evangelist working in our mission field in the Hubli region of Karnataka. Unaware of the danger, Ellappa's wife went in and out of the house several times while working. Eventually, as she was bringing things inside, she accidentally stepped on the venomous snake, which hissed and rose up to strike. In her fear, she called out the name of Jesus, and miraculously, the snake retreated. It was later killed, and the family praised God for His protection, believing He had sealed the snake's mouth. Hallelujah!

MISSIONARY ALBUM

Jangkholun (Helun) Touthang was born on January 28, 1982, as the eldest son of Mr. Hemkhosei Touthang and Mrs. Nemngah of Phaimol village, Kangpokpi district, Manipur. He has five sisters and one brother. His father, a government employee, sought a better future for his children and relocated the family to Imphal. Born into a humble Christian household, Jangkholun developed a deep devotion to faith through his involvement in church and Sunday school. On October 26, 1996, he had a significant spiritual experience, which led to his "born again experience" and receiving of spiritual guidance. He then served as a Sunday school teacher for seven years at New Lambulane Church of CBCA and as a youth group leader in his congregation.

In September 2000, he fully dedicated himself to missionary work after receiving divine intervention through verses 2 Tim 1:9. In June 2007, after completing his Master's degree from Manipur University, he joined the Friend Missionary Prayer Band as a full-time missionary. Following his in-service training, he was posted to the Kanpur Regional Office in Uttar Pradesh.

Sister Ngaithianching Hauzel was born on August 17, 1985, the daughter of (Late) Mr. Nengzaton Hauzel and (Late) Mrs. Nemzathang of Churachandpur district Manipur. She has four sisters and one brother. Raised in a devout Christian family, she developed a strong spiritual foundation from childhood. Her father, a church elder, supported many missionaries. In 1990, she accepted the Lord Jesus as her personal Savior during a children's camp held at her church. She did Bachelor of Theology (BTh) from Trivandrum Bible College and Master of Divinity (MDiv) from Grace Bible College, Manipur. She worked in Children's Sunday School for two years at EBCC Upper Lamka. In June 2008, she joined in FMPB as a full-time missionary. After completing her missionary training, she was assigned to the Pathalgaon Girls Hostel in Chhattisgarh.

On January 29, 2010, Rev. Jangkholun and Sister Ngaithianching were united in marriage. They have since served together as a missionary family, working in mission fields such as Beheta - Dewa, and Gonda Children's Home. Since 2018, they have been serving at the Ghatampur mission field.

God has blessed them with three children: their eldest daughter, Priscilla, born on March 21, 2016, currently in second grade; their younger daughter, Eunice, born on July 17, 2017, in first grade; both studying in Manipur. Their youngest son, Stephen, was born on April 25, 2022, and is with them.

Let us keep this dedicated missionary family in our prayers.
