An Anchor of Hope

In our Christian lives, we often blend the meanings of faith, trust, and hope. Understanding these distinctions can be illuminated through three simple examples.

First, imagine a group of villagers gathered in a church to pray for rain. Among them, one boy holds an umbrella. This represents faith, as described in Hebrews 11:1: "Faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen."

Second, consider a baby who smiles when being tossed into the air by his loving father feeling secure in the knowledge that it will be caught. This embodies trust. God expects us to place this kind of unwavering trust in Him at all times and in all circumstances, as stated in Psalm 118:8. When we place our faith in money, talent, or experience instead, we will be disappointed and deviate from God's will.

Third, each night, we go to bed with the expectation of waking up the next morning, despite no guarantees. This is hope. This month, we will meditate on the concept of trust.

We often seek advice and approval from others in various areas of our lives-education, work, marriage-but we must remember to place our trust in God above all. The psalmist wisely reminds us in Psalm 144:4 that "Man is like a breath; his days are like a passing shadow." Similarly, Isaiah 2:22 urges us, "Stop trusting in mere humans, who have but a breath in their nostrils. Why hold them in esteem?"

When we trust in God alone, we become steadfast and unashamed as we navigate our daily lives.

In the Psalms, we see David exemplifying trust in God. He declares, "Taste and see that the Lord is good; blessed is the one who takes refuge in Him" (Psalm 34:8). "Commit your way to the LORD; trust in Him and He will do this" (Psalm 37:5). We also read about King Hezekiah, who "trusted in the Lord God of Israel, so that after him there was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor were there any before him" (2 Kings 18:5).

When we trust in our Lord Jesus Christ, our anchor, our journey through life becomes peaceful. May the Lord help us!

FROM THE GENERAL SECRETARY...

Dear Partners in the mission of reaching the unreached,

The Holy Spirit spoke very firmly in my heart from two verses of Ephesians chapter 6. In verse 7, Paul says, 'Serve wholeheartedly, as if you were serving the Lord, not people'. The instruction is to do anything wholeheartedly as we are doing it for the Lord. There is no secular and sacred division in our lives. All kinds of work we do must be done with full involvement because of the truth that all we do is for God and for the glory of His Name. Verse 10 says, 'Finally, be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power'. Paul exhorts the believers in Ephesus that they have to be strong in the Lord and also in His mighty power. There is no power above the power of God. That tells us how secure and powerful we are in Christ. Then he continued in the next verses about the armours needed to be strong. May the Lord extend His grace to do everything as we do for God and also help us to have all the armours to be strong in Him and in His power.

Trusting in God Over Man

Life is often likened to a journey. When we travel, we typically don't inspect the functionality of our vehicles before setting off; we trust the process, even when booking online. We often place our faith not in the drivers or the vehicles but in God. Many times, we lose ourselves because we rely too much on people rather than depending on God. Those who promise to stay with us till the end of our life's journey may fade away, and those who vow to serve in ministry may leave. After all, they are human.

Isaiah 2:22 reminds us not to put our trust in mere mortals, who are but breath in their nostrils. The people of Israel, despite being led by God, demanded a king to rule over them, resulting in dire consequences in later days. This serves as a warning about misplaced trust.

In Scripture, many individuals place their faith in others instead of God. For instance, Joseph, while imprisoned, asked the cupbearer to remember him and mention his case to Pharaoh (Genesis 40:14). Despite Joseph's assistance, the cupbearer forgot him (Genesis 40:23). Today, we often seek favor from others instead of trusting the God who has sustained us. Unlike humans, God never forgets us. We must place our complete trust in Christ Jesus.

Traits of an Untrustworthy Man

Scripture warns against reliance on human strength (Psalm 20:7), military might (Psalm 44:6), personal intelligence (Proverbs 3:5), or riches (Proverbs 11:28). Proverbs 28:26 states, "Those who trust in their own hearts are fools." Such individuals will ultimately face despair.

Trusting Humans is Detrimental

Jeremiah 17:5-6 declares, "Cursed is the one who trusts in men who draw strength from mere flesh and whose heart turns away from the Lord. That person will be like a bush in the waste lands (useless life), they will not see prosperity when it comes (Prosperity comes but they will not realize it or enjoy it). They will dwell in the parched places of the desert in a salt land (Fruitless life) here no one lives." Joseph, despite maintaining his purity, faced abandonment when he relied on the cupbearer. However, when God's timing came, he was released and elevated.

God's Love is Trustworthy

Daniel, a steadfast prayer warrior, exemplified unwavering faith. When thrown into the lion's den, he trusted completely in God, and no harm befell him (Daniel 6:23). We must heed Isaiah's warning and stop trusting in mere mortals. Instead of trusting in this ever-changing world and the people around us, who often change according to circumstances, let us place our trust in the unchanging and reliable God in all situations.

Blessed are Those Who Believe

Jeremiah 17:7-8 illustrates "But blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord, whose confidence is in him. They will be like a tree planted by the water that sense out its root by the stream. It does not fear when heat comes (Problems will come but they don't have to worry about it because God is in control) its leaves are always green it has no worries in a year of drought (there will be peace in the midst of troubles) and never fails to bear fruit (Fruitful life). my heart trusts in him, and He helps us - Psalm 28:7, will be like an olive tree - Psalm 52:8, whoever trusts in the Lord is kept safe - Pro 29:25, in quietness and trust is our strength - Isa 30:15 and will never be put to shame Rom 9:33. All these blessings flow from trusting in the Lord alone.

For those of us engaged in building the Kingdom of God, Zechariah reminds us that it is not by might, nor by power but by the Spirit of the Lord (Zechariah 4:6). The might mentioned in this verse are Might of a human, animal and angels. The power mentioned here is that of an army, money and skills. So trusting Him alone means trusting His Words, His Acts and His Time. Even when situation around us in our family and ministry doesn't seem so positive just simply Trust Him without which all our efforts may falter. May the Mighty One of Israel guide us in our journey, leading us to victory. Let Christ be our Trustworthy anchor! Amen.

TRAIL BLAZERS

Frederick William Savidge was born in 1862 in Stretham, a small village in Cambridgeshire, England. He was the fourth child of Briggs Savidge and his wife, Sara. His family belonged to the Baptist Church. Savidge became a pioneering English Christian missionary to Northeast India. He held a B.A. and a Ph.D. degree. While working as a schoolmaster in London, he met his future missionary partner, James Herbert Lorrain, at a school where they both taught. They two became friends through their shared congregation at the Highgate Road Baptist Church in London. Savidge accepted a missionary post offered by the Arthington Aborigines Mission to work in India, and in October 1891, he resigned from his teaching position and left England for Calcutta, arriving in November. He met Lorrain during an evangelical campaign in Brahmanbaria (now in Bangladesh), organized by the New Zealand Baptists. Lorrain had already been in India since January 1, 1890.

MISSION IN INDIA

The original plan of the Arthington Aborigines Mission was for Savidge and Lorrain to work in Tripura, but they faced opposition from the ruler, Maharaja. Consequently, they traveled to Chittagong. After staying there for some time, they requested permission to enter the Lushai Hills. Since the hills were under tribal chieftains, their application was denied, but they were allowed to stay at Kasalong village. This area was suffering from a severe shortage of food and the widespread spread of infectious diseases. The two missionaries endured hunger for over a month and also suffered from severe dysentery. To defend themselves, the Rangamati Commissioner provided them with a rifle, but neither knew how to shoot even a jungle fowl. A medical doctor suggested that they relocate to Darjeeling to recover their health, which they did. Although the doctor advised them to return to England, fearing for their health, they were determined not to leave India. They moved to Silchar in Assam, where they stayed for a year in 1893. During this time, they met some Mizo visitors and began learning their language.

Frederick William

Eventually, their permit was granted, and on December 26, 1893 (Boxing Day), they set sail in a canoe on the Tlawng River of Mizoram. They arrived in Aizawl, the capital of Mizoram, on January 11, 1894. This day is now observed as a public holiday in the state, known as "Missionary Day." Savidge and Lorrain were the first foreigners the Mizo people had ever seen, and since they held no official authority, they were nicknamed "Sap Vakvai" ("Vagabond Sahibs"). They were also honored with the title "Zosap" (meaning "Mizo Sahib" or "respected master"). The Mizo people called Savidge "Sap Upa" (old sahib) and Lorrain "Pu Buanga" (Mr. Grey) due to his different complexion.

They began creating the Mizo alphabet based on the Roman script, and after two and a half months, Savidge started the first school on April 1, 1894. The school had only two pupils, Suaka and Thangphunga. The first book in Mizo was published on October 22, 1895. Savidge and Lorrain translated and published the Gospels of Luke and John, and the Acts of the Apostles. They also published A Grammar and Dictionary of the Lushai Language in 1898, which became the foundation of the Mizo language.

The Arthington Mission required its missionaries to move to new fields, and the work in Mizoram was handed over to the Welsh Mission. Savidge and Lorrain left Aizawl for England on December 31, 1897, but soon returned to India under the Assam Frontier Pioneer Mission after completing a brief medical course. They first worked in Sadya, Assam (now Arunachal Pradesh), among the Abor and Miri tribes, where they prepared the Gospels in the local languages and compiled a dictionary. Savidge and Lorrain arrived in Lunglei on March 13, 1903, and settled in Serkawn, marking the beginning of the Baptist Church in Mizoram. Both Savidge and Lorrain were married during this period. Savidge married Margaret Grant of Aberdeen, a trained teacher who had taught at the Calcutta Girls' School run by the Scottish Church Mission. Together, they served as Baptist missionaries, with Savidge focusing on education and social work, while Lorrain concentrated on pastoral and translation efforts. By 1921, Savidge's educational initiatives had succeeded, with 15 schools and 421 students established. In 1919, they also opened a small dispensary with the help of new missionaries, which has since grown into the Christian Hospital Serkawn. Their son, Cecil Arthur Grant Savidge, later married Edris Joan Mould in Mizoram. Savidge's dear friend, James Herbert Lorrain, remained with him throughout his work.

LATER YEARS

As Savidge's health declined, he retired in 1925. He left Mizoram on April 13, 1925, and returned to his hometown in England, bringing with him a tin of Serkawn soil to be buried with him. His wife, Margaret, passed away in April 1933 at the age of 72 in Bedfordshire. Savidge spent his final years living with his sister, Mrs. Gautrey, in Streatham. His health worsened due to diabetes mellitus, and after long suffering, Frederick William Savidge passed away on September 28, 1935, at the age of 73. He remained faithful to the Lord and dedicated to the people of Mizoram until his last breath.

Rev. Sunil Kumar was born on 2nd May 1984 to Dr. Ravi Kumar and Mrs. Shakuntala in Goribad village, Raichur district, Karnataka. He has two younger brothers and was born into a Christian family. His ambition was to become an IPS officer, but God had different plans for him. After failing one subject in his 12th standard, all his ambitions were shattered, and he became deeply disappointed.

During this challenging period, a team from the Evangelical Church of India (ECI) visited his house and invited him to join their ministry. While serving in the ministry with ECI, he accepted the Lord as his personal Savior in 1999. Burdened for souls, he committed his life to full-time ministry. During his time as a pastor with ECI, the late missionary Brother Narayan Nayak from the Friends Missionary Prayer Band (FMPB) shared about their ministry and motivated him to join FMPB as a local evangelist. Encouraged by Rev. Thimmesh, he joined FMPB in 2006, completed his missionary training at NIM Jhansi, and began his ministry in Madhya Pradesh among the Bhil and Barela people groups in the Chiriyा field. In 2009, he served among the Koruk people group as a pioneer missionary in the Dharani field. From 2013 onwards, he worked in the Hubli Region in Shirahatti field and since November 2021, he has been serving in the Shiggaon field.

Rev. Sunil married Sister Sangeeta Lalu Tekam on 16/05/2010. Sister Sangeeta is a FMPB believer from the Kolami tribe in Maharashtra, born on 06/07/1983 to Mr. Lalu Tekam and Mrs. Lankabai Tekam, who were from a Hindu background. Her father became the first believer among the Kolami tribe. She has two sisters and one brother. She accepted the Lord through the ministry of FMPB missionaries Rev. Masilamani and Mr. Stanley Charles. She completed her B.Th., and encouraged by Rev. Masilamani and confirmed by the Lord through Jeremiah 1:5, she joined FMPB in 2009, completing her training at Jhansi.

God has blessed them with two daughters: Sharon Gloria born (07/04/2011), currently in 9th grade, and Starleena born (24/02/2014), in 6th grade. Both daughters are studying at Santosh Vidyalaya, Dohnavur.

Currently, Rev. Sunil Kumar and Sister Sangeeta are serving the Lord in the Hubli region as Regional Secretary. Their mission is to reach 500,000 Kannada people for Christ. Let us keep their family in our prayers and support them in their mission.
